

Louvre Hotels Group opened the Golden Tulip Skybay Gyeongpo Hotel in Korea

Louvre Hotels Group, through the intermediary of Golden Tulip Korea Corp., had officially inaugurated the Golden Tulip Sky Bay Hotel at Kyungpodae in Gangneung, the heart of the Pyeongchang Winter Olympics.

With this opening, the world's top five hotel chain is the first to enter an international premium brand hotel in the Gangneung area.

Golden Tulip Skybay Hotel, located in the central plaza, known as Gyeongchang Square, is a building with uniquely shaped two-tower structure which can easily be spotted.

With a total of 538 rooms, including 26 suites, this hotel is perfect for couples and families. All the rooms have a terrace facing either Gyeongpo Beach or Lake Gyeongpo for a magnificent view. Some rooms are even equipped with a jacuzzi for a relaxing and comfortable night.

The hotel's best features are on the 20th floor where the Infiniti Pool and the Restaurant Soiree is located. The Infiniti Pool boasts a fantastic view of the ocean as if the surface of the pool and sea are connected. Restaurant Soiree offers a wide range of sophisticated menus including cocktails, wine and whiskey, along with afternoon tea and seafood plates from fresh local catches in the evening.

At the same time, Restaurant One on the first floor is an all day dining restaurant that is also available as a simple and hardy buffet or even just for a relaxing light drink.

In addition, the hotel has a banquet hall with 500 seats and small meeting rooms for weddings and group events, and varieties of facilities including sauna and spa, along with 468 cars parking spaces.
